

Nikola Trick is one of the representatives of the renowned Artistic Virovitica family Trick, recognizable as the painter of Virovitica's vedutes, the landscapes, author of poetic dead nature, outstanding portraitist and painter inclined to experiment and development in the media of painting. His work is characterized by intense and dynamic work on a personal painting manuscript. He was born 23. in August 1926 in Virovitica, where he attended elementary school and real gymnasium. He enrolled he Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb in 1947 where he graduated painting in 1953. After the Academy he returned to Virovitica where he worked as a teacher of fine arts education. Since 1960 he leaves pedagogical work and has been devoted exclusively to painting.

(source: Museum of Fine Arts Osijek)